

WE '73

by Paul King & Will Sanders

Intro

D Em A7 D

D G Em A7 D

(Chorus) Paul

D --G D
There's a moment in time that exists for me

A
In a small town in New Jersey

G A
Where being different was not my end

G A D
And where I found so many friends.

All

V1

G A
Exploring the awkward years of life

G A
Our teenaged wisdom filled with strife

G Em
Our brains, emotions running wild

Em --A7 D G/Em/A7/D
Not old enough, no longer a child.

(Chorus) Paul

All

V2

G A
Our passions flowed, our hearts engaged

G A
Those floundered attempts to woo upstaged

G -----Em
By nervous insecurities

Em A7 D G/Em/A7/D
Of words and actions meant to please.

(Chorus) Paul

All

V3

G A
Our friendships encompassed every mind

G A
Scholastic sport, the rough, and the kind

G Em
Gregarious, timid, quiet or loud

Em A7 D G/Em/A7/D
We stood as one united crowd.

(Chorus) Paul

Will & Paul

V4

G A
Understanding not the world we see

G -A
Struggling with our identity

G Em
Our families torn by Uncle Sam

Em A7 -----D G/Em/A7/D
Inflation raged and Vietnam.

(Chorus) Paul

All

V5

G A
Our families dealt with troubled times

G A
Divorces—deaths—the treasonous kind

G Em
We made hard choices, one and all

Em A7 D G/Em/A7/D
Some held their ground, some had to fall.

(Chorus) Paul

Paul

V6

G A
Our bonds are strong, We '73

G A
We joined our spirits carefully

G A
From then and to this present day

G A D G/Em/A7/D G/Em/A7/D
No distance, no hardship will our bonds sway.

(Chorus) All
